FLATBUSH TO SIR MARTIN

DEFEATS FLEET MASKETTE BEFORE A BIG AS-SEMBLAGE OF CHEERING SPECTATORS.

Ballot Compensates Mr. Keene by Taking the Richer Century Stakes in Fast Time-Roseben in Front.

New York, September 5.—Ten thousand race-goers the largest crowd since Futurity day, witnessed the downfall of Maskette in the Flatbush Stakes at Sheepshead Bay today and enthusiastically acclaimed a new champion in Sir Martin, which set the seal on his fame by decisively reversing his preceding two runnings with the Futurity heroine. No one was disposed to detract from the glory coming to Mr. Madden's colt by virtue of his splendid achievement, but the fact remains that Mr. Keene's filly was not herself today. Close observers saw indications of soreness in front, a natural result of a week of excessive campaigning by a filly of such pronderous build, which is troubled besides with inciplent osselets.

The field named overnight for the Flatbush was reduced by the withdrawal of Barney Schreiber's Emperor William to five starters. Maskette, Wedding Bells, Sir Martin, Fayette and Trance. It proved such a powerful magnet of attraction to the spectators that several thousands of them went upon the roof to get a better view of the coming struggle, which was over the full straight Futurity course. The progress of the race in the early stages could not be distinguished except with the aid of field glasses and it was not until they swept around the bend and into full view that any idea could be formed as to the probable winner. It was a great shock to Maskette's backers to see her under the whip and seemingly unable to shake off. Sir Martin, which for that early stage of the race was altogether too close up for comfort, Indeed, it was a mere moment before simultaneous exclamations of "Sir Martin whis" were heard on every hand. Beginning the fifth furlong Maskette shot her bolt in a last expiring effort, leaving the reletless cold to range alongside and then leave her with such a burst of reserve speed that he finished out the distance in the teeth of a stiff wind in the wonderful time of 1:25‡. Maskette tired so utterly in the closing strides that Fayette was overhauling her with menacing swiftness for second bonors. Fa

The opening and closing races were marked by inwieldy fields. Withdrawals simplified the former, in which Roseben prevailed. Summer Night graduated like a good filly in the latter. The Autumn Steepleciase furnished an interesting enough spectacle. There were several falls, but horses and riders all escaped unburt. Sanctus showed a glimpse of his three-year-old form by winning off from seven-others, including Bayonet, which has fallen off sharply in his cross-country form.

The Autumn Steeplechase is but three years old. Its history is shown below:

This is the first day I have been able to get to the track in nearly two months. I came down specially to see for myself how the law was being observed at Sheepshead and to say that I am surprised expresses it mildly. Why, the Coney Island Jockey Club has gone far beyond necessary limits, in my opinion, in enforcing the Hart-Agnew law. According to a written opinion furnished by the corporation counsel for the guidance of the police department in the premises, certain forms of speculation or betting on horse races are permitted, based on decisions of law handed down by Justice Gaynor, Justice Bischoff and Justice Hoyt. Here I find nearly ten thousand people and no betting whatever, a remarkable state of affairs. I have instructed Inspector Flood to enforce the law both here and at the coming Gravesend meeting in strict accordance with the lines prescribed by the eminent judicial authorities just mentioned."

A. J. Joyner will go abroad shortly to assume charge of the combined English strings of Angust Belmont and Harry Payne Whitney. The $10.704 day. In an interview Mr. Baker said:

CHAMPION TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT OF THE PRESENT YEAR

JOHN E. MADDEN'S CH. C, 2, SIR MARTIN, BY OGDEN-LADY STERLING.

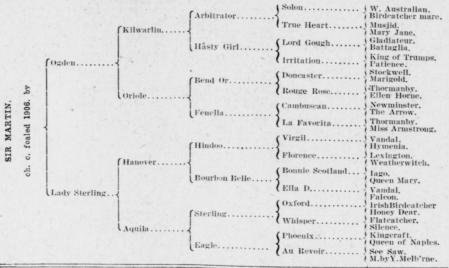

In defeating Maskette in the Flatbush Stakes at Sheepshead Bay yesterday Sir Martin only emphasized what he had already demonstrated and that is that he is the best colt of his year and a very high-class young race horse. In view of the fact that Maskette was essaying to give him five pounds, it would hardly be fair to say that he is the superior of Mr. Keene's grand filly, but it is clear that they are not far apart in merit at any rate.

Sir Martin, in taking the Flatbush, increased his earnings by $11,100, making a total to date of $78,500. He now has to his credit the National Stallion Race, Great American Stakes, Great Trial Stakes, second half of the Double Event, Saratoga Special and Flatbush Stakes, bestdes two purses won while being educated for the more important work in advance of him. Four seconds in other rich stakes have helped his earnings materially. His next engagement is in the Flight Stakes next Thursday, but he is not likely to start, it being more probable that he will make his next appearance in public in the Great Eastern Handleap next Saturday, an event in which Maskette is not engaged. His record to date is:

VOX POPULI DISTINGUISHES HIMSELF.

Seattle. Wash., September 5.—Vox Populi, one of James R. Keene's cast-offs, running in the colors of James R. Keene's cast-offs, running in the colors of Dr. T. S. Childs, ande a new American record for a smile and lifty yards by going the distance in 1:40} in winning an overnight handicap, the feature of today's card at The Meadows. This clipped two-fifths of a second from the record made by Haviland at Washington Park, July 7, 1903, Vox Popull's feat was virtually lost sight of by the vast crowd present, however, in the light of an indignant demonstration directed against William (Red) Walker, as the result of the disgraceful showing made in this race by his crack colf. Stanley Fay.

It was persistently reported about the track before the race that Stanley Fay was palabily unfit of racing and the outcome bore out these sinister reports, for Stanley Fay was palabily unfit of racing and the outcome bore out these sinister reports, for Stanley Fay was palably unfit of racing and the outcome bore out these sinister reports, for Stanley Fay was thoroughly beaten before the race was half over, and finished a bad last, justifying the Judgment of the bookmakers who reached out for show bets on him at 3 to 5 in a four-horse field. When he came back to the stand he was roundly hissed and cries of "rotten" resounded throughout the grandstand.

The decision of the King County Selling Stakes was, marked by reversal of form on the part of Kerry, the winner. Kerry had been badly beaten as an odds-on favorite in an inferior field in his previous start and 30 to 1 was obtainable against him as a consequence. Silver Stocking, which finished second, had also made a disgraceful showing as an odds-on when last out. Security and Toupee were joint favorites of the race. The former found the route too long and the latter finished with a belated rush.

MONTREAL'S RECORD CROWD

GREATEST ATTENDANCE IN THE HISTORY OF THE BLUE BONNETS TRACK

Elizabeth Harwood Captures the Hochelaga Stakes for Edward Corrigan-Clell Turney Defeats Pretension Gamely.

Montreal, Que., September 5.—All former records for large attendance at Blue Bonnets were exceeded today when an estimated number of 15,000 was on hand to witness the racing. There was also a record established for the number of bookmakers in line, forty-six quoting prices during the afternoon. The racing was fast and spirited and thoroughly enjoyed by the immense throng.

The Hochelaga Handicap, for two-year-olds, at five and one-half furlongs, having a net value of $1,340 to the winner, was the feature offering and brought out the best field of youngsters in Canada. It was closely contested until the last furlong, where Edward Corrigan's consistent filly, Elizabeth Harwood, drew out to win. The battle for second place was desperately fought until the finish, Arondack, Quantico, High Range, Pearl Point, Stromeland, Paradise Queen and Hurlock finishing heads apart in the order named.

The Military Cup, ridden by officers of the Canadian militia, was an added feature that attracted the society element. Six started in the race and the victory went to Major Riley, who had the mount on Knobhampton, from Nogi, ridden by Lieutenant Elightboun, astride Blue Jeans, being a distant third. Funiculaire was favorite in the race but Lieutenant Elightboun, astride Blue Jeans, being a distant third. Funiculaire was favorite in the race but Lieutenant Read fell off hhm on account of a defective stirrup strap.

The steeplechase at three miles brought about a meeting between St. Nick, winner of the Macdonald steeplechase, and Ell, both considered among the top-notch fencers here. Byzantine was also a starter in the race, but was not able to cope with the first-named pair. St. Nick and Ell raced together at breakneck speed for two turns of the course, when Ell began tiring and, after going over fifteen fences, victory for the Tompkins candidate was a certainty. St. Nick eventually won by ten lengths, Ell being tully twenty-five lengths in advance of Byzantine at the end.

Belle of the Ball repeated her previous recent victory by taking the opening race from the beavily backed Gerrymander. Ontario was easily best of the poor band that started in the second race, and came away in the stretch to win as his rider pleased. Yaddo, the favorite, taking second place. Cleil Turney upset calculations by beating the well-meant Pretension in the fifth race, and J. H. Reed in a desperate drive managed to get up in the last stride to land the sixth from Silk Hose and Colonel Zeb. Noses apart, followed Lomond, Dr. Holzberg and Hawkslight. Dr. Holzberg, but for being almost thrown soon after the start would have won.

The stewards this afternoon issued the following supplementary ruling in the case of jockey Englander:

The stewards this afternoon issued the following supplementary ruling in the case of jockey Englander:
"Jockey Englander is ruled off the turf by the stewards of the Montreal Jockey Club for using grossily profane and insulting language to one of their members." Prior to this penalty Englander had been indefinitely suspended for an indifferent ride on the horse Niblick in the second race yesterday. Englander, when notified last night of his suspension, became abusive towards C. J. Fitzgerald. There was some sympathy for Englander because of the suspension on Niblick, which he immediately forfeited when it became known that he had lost his temper and insulted one of the stewards.

Tod Cella was advised today by telegraph that Miss Strome. Von Buelow and Irrigator, at present quartered at Fort Eric, are in a serious condition and slight hopes are entertained for their recovery. Mort Mahoney, who is representing John Cavanugh here, predicts that there will be at least fifty bookmakers in line here before the meeting terminates.

George R. Fortescue, who is the owner of the steeplechaser, Goldflenr, racing here, is a cousin to President Roosevelt, and frequently accompanies his ington.

Arondack and Cloisteress, now racing at Blue Bonnets, are considered the smallest race horses on the grounds and can qualify in pony races, both being under the required lifteen hands.

The expected meeting to be held at Benning, beginning October 12 and to continue until October 17, under the auspiecs of the National Horse Show and Turf Association, is expected to be of considerable interest, and will serve to attract a goodly number of horsemen. The veteran Virginia breeder, General W. T. Townes, has charge of the arrangements for the meeting, which has the sanction of the Jockey Club. The horse show in connection with the meeting will begin daily at eleven a. m.

ARGENTINA CLUB AGAINST AMERICANS.

ARGENTINA CLUB AGAINST AMERICANS.

New York, September 4.—A dispatch from Buenos Ayres, Argentina, says that the executive committee of the Argentina Jockey Club has resolved to exclude foreign-born horses from races. This measure is directed principally against the American horses coming on the steamer Velasquez.

The action is evidently taken on mere rumor, as among the 102 horses shipped on the Velasquez by J. B. Haggin and J. R. Keene August 20 last, there are few or no horses for racing purposes.

They were for the most part stallions and broodmares with which to found a breeding farm in South America. "Matt" Byrnes, the veteran trainer, was in charge of the consignment and it was expected that the trip would last twenty-six days. The expense of shipping the horses was $100 each and $250 each per man.

The shipment will reach Buenos Ayres, if the trip is well made, as is likely at this time of the year, about next Wednesday or Thursday.

Commenting upon the cablegram from Buenos Ayres, Schuyler L. Parsons said that he did not think the Buenos Ayres authorities were discriminating against United States turfmen but that, as is the case in France, many races in the Argentine are limited to horses bred in that country. Friends of Messrx, Haggin and Keene said that neither owner was at all concerned by the news, lansmuch as the thoroughbreds shipped by them to Buenos Ayres were for breeding purposes only.

KENTUCKY WOE IS MUCH REDUCED.

Lexington, Ky.. September 5.—In the matter of prices the yearling sales at Sheenshead Bay have furnished a pleasant surprise. In nearly every instance the lots consigned by the various breeders have realized more than even the owners dared to expect. At this distance from the sale mart the ascendancy in values over the July sale period is not rully understood, and the return of the consignors is awaited for a thorough analysis of the situation. Just how good it appears may be judged from the sudden order from James B. Haggin on which forty of the remaining eighty yearlings at Elmendorf Stud were shipped today to be sold at Sheenshead Bay next week, as well as the decision made by H. P. Headley to pass up his date in England and to sell at New York instead.

REALLY SURPRISING PRICES FOR YEARLINGS.

New York, September 5.—The greatest and most successful auction sale of thoroughbred yearlings held this year took place in the Fasig-Tipton Company's naddocks at Sheepshead Bay today. Everything about it suggested the good old prosperous days of racing when competition among the millionaire sportsmen of the country was keen and healthy. James R. Keene, R. T. Wilson, Jr., Andrew Miller, J. E. Widener, John Madden, C. R. Ellison and many other men of prominence were bidding against each other at some time or another. Of the forty-six yearlings to be sold from Clarence H. Mackay's Kingston Stud. Elliott C. Cowdin's Maplehurst Stud. Sanford C. Lyne's Larchmont Stud, and Andrew Miller & Co.'s Millstream Stud, thirty-nine were disposed of for-a grand total of $42,420, or an average per head of $1,344. The star of the sale, a magnificent chestnut colt named New Castle, by Meddler, out of Homespun, a full sister to the celebrated Handspun, and an eligible to the Epsom Derby and the Grand Prix de Paris of 1910, brought $10,700 after sensational contention in which every man just referred to was a bidder. A. J. Joyner, acting for Harry Payne Whitney, was the successful bidder, J. E., Madden carried New Castle up to $9,000 and stopped, Keene bid $10,000. Widener $10,100. Joyner then took a hand and raised him to $10,200, and Widener went that $100 better. Then there was a hull until Keene said $10,600, and when Joyner promptly came back with $10,700, the other subsided. All of these gentlemen were grouped outside of the sales shed and in the rear of the auctioneer, and there was an instant stampede on the part of the big crowd within to get into nearer proximity to the interesting seene. PERSONAL LIBERTY LEAGUE IN ACTION.

Big Meeting in Brooklyn Enthusiastic and Adopts Resolutions Defining Its Purposes.

Resolutions Defining Its Purposes.

It seems quite probable that the Personal Liberty League is to play a considerable part in the New York election, although it is quite more probable that its influence would be felt more tellingly if this was an off year instead of a presidential election year.

The first big meeting of the Personal Liberty League was held in Prospect Hall, Brooklyn, Thursday night. It is a spacious hall with a seating capacity of 3,500. Yet it was crowded to its utmost and the streets near by were thronged with people struggling for admission. It was a striking indication of the vitality of the movement. A number of men of real worth and eminence delivered addresses. Perhaps the most effective was that of Andrew McLean, editor of the Brooklyn Citizen. Referring to the so-called reformers, he said:

"If you submit to the dictations of these people they will not hesitate to extend the sphere of their action. If they can say to you that you may not enjoy an athletic exhibition, or a horse race, or this or that or the other sport, it is but a question of time, and a short time, until they will say to you that if you take a drink of liquor you have committed a violation of the law.

"Once they reach that point it is an easy step to the proper of the poople, and the cook, the the was prescribed the clothing and the book, the the was prescribed the clothing and the poople." If the government has the right to say to its citizens what pleasures they shall not enjoy, why should it not also have the right to prescribe what forms of worship and enjoyment they shall partake of.

"This movement is an appeal to the American people, not as a narrisan unestion, but as a deemand should it not also have the right to pressive and ender the corresponding to the American people, not as a partisan question, but as a demand for the rights of which certain citizens who would fashion all the world alike, would deprive us. It is an appeal to stand for liberty which should be like the appeal in time of danger to stand by the like the appeal in time of danger to stand by the like the appeal in time of danger to stand by the like the appeal in time of danger to stand by the like the appeal for the rights of the citizen. It is an awakening to the dangers which threaten our liberties from the cowardliness or the narrow-mindedness of our legislators."

Mr. McLean, ex-Senator Crosby, of Missouri, and the other speakers were applauded with all the favor that usually attends the climax of a great political campaign and the following resolutions were adopted unanimously:

"Whereas the tendency of our legislators is toward the enactment of numerous laws, born of hysterical sentiment, many of which are of an oppressive and restrictive nature, directly affecting the personal liberties of the people, and,

"Whereas there is no demand on the part of a majority of the citizens of this state for enactments of this nature, known as sumptuary or blue laws." Therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Personal of this nature, known as sumptuary or 'blue laws.' Therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Personal Liberty League, in mass meeting assembled, this third day of September, 1908, denounce the attempt of the government to make its conscience the conscience of the whole people, and be it further

"Resolved, That the Personal Liberty League will support for elective office, irrespective of their party politics, only those candidates who declare in favor of liberal laws and who will resist further enactment of restrictive and oppressive measures affecting the personal rights of the people."

YOUNG WILL BECOME AN EXPATRIATE.

Lexington, Ky., September 5.—Colonel Milton Young today made the announcement that he has made up his mind to sell every horse and acre of land he owns in Kentucky, to leave the United States and re-establish himself as a breeder of thoroughbred horses in the Argentine Republic. After selling McGrathiana Farm to Beasley Bros. of Lancaster several days ago and auctioning fifty-one yearlings at Sheepshead Bay last Monday. Colonel Young has left 1,290 acres of land and 560 thoroughbreds.

"I will sell every horse and acre of land I own between now and November," said Colonel Young. "and about January I I will set out for Buenos Ayres with the idea of buying a farm in the Argentine Republic and re-establishing myself there as a breeder of thoroughbreds. I will not take to that country any horse that I now own, nor do I expect to have any American-bred horses. Not that I do not believe the American-bred numer the superior of the English thoroughbred in soundness, conformation and other respects, but at present the English horse is the horse of the Argentine Republic, and holds the place of preference in the fancy of the people of that country. It would be a poor business policy to build a stud there from a foundation of American horses.

"I will buy my foundation in England and later along I may take in some good American mares. I expect to spend about three months investigating conditions in the Argentine Republic and will return to the United States by the way of England some time in April. I have not determined on the dates for my sale here, but it will be some time in the coming month and I will sell out everything I plans and they think with me that there is a better possess.

"My wife and children are agreed with me in my plans and they think with me that there is a better future abroad than in this country, where fanatics have the reins and are driving people to destruction."

H. B. Colt is here from New York in quest of thoroughbreds suitable for hunting purposes.
H. M. Ziegler and trainer Charles Hughes returned from New York tonight after spending the day in inspecting the Ziegler horses at Highland Farm. About half of the thirty-six are to be sold. Forty yearlings to be sold in New York next week were shipped from Elmendorf Farm this afternoon.

WEDNESDAY'S BIG ENGLISH RACE.

August Belmont's Norman III. Is Favorite for St. Leger-Probable Starters and Riders,

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, will start for home directly after the running of the St. Leger at Doncaster next Wednesday. For the big race, which is for three-year-olds, $22,500 added, over the old St. Leger course, about one mile, six furlongs and 132 yards. Mr. Belmont's colt, Norman III., is now favorite. Good, consistent work and let-ups for Your Majesty, Signorinetta and Ebor have made Norman III, the first choice in the betting for the big English race.

The probable starters and jockeys in the St. Leger are:

JAMAICANS EAGER FOR AMERICAN RACING.

JAMAICANS EAGER FOR AMERICAN RACING.

New York, September 5.—M. de Cordova, editor of the Kingston (Jamaica) Gleaner, was a passenger on the Royal Mail liner, Magdalena, which arrived here yesterday. He said that the proposed plan to make Jamaica a center for racing of American horses this winter, as a result of the anti-betting legislation here, is an all absorbing topic in Jamaica. He denied the statements that there is any strong oposition on the island to the carrying out of the plan, but that on the contrary, Jamaicans are working rapidly for it. He said that Little, an American horse, which has created a sensation there by successful victories over English horses, has been purchased by a syndicate for many times what was paid for him in America.

W. T. Rich, a Brooklyn man, who was a passenger, said that he had met several Jamaica racing men during a stay on the island, and that they are doing everything possible to promote the racing plan. "Americans are well liked on the island," he plan.

"Americans are well liked on the island," he said, "and the work of the American horses which have been taken down to the island recently by H. E. Harris and others, has done much to create a feeling in favor of the Americanizing of the track at Knutsford Park, near Jamaica. Several enlargements to grandstands and paddocks will, of course, have to be made. have to be made

STANHOPE'S REPORT ON ENGLISH MARKET.

Lexington, Ky., September 5.—According to H. Stanhope, who returned Wednesday from a tenweeks sojourn in England, those who have shipped their yearlings abroad expecting a big market are going to be sadly disappointed. "They are un against it over there," said be. "There is a feeling, in France particularly, that the reform wave is going to cross the pond, and their buying is sion and cautious. Another thing, the breeders in England and Ireland have exacted from Tattersalls and other sales agents that they make no public offering of American-bred yearlings until after the Doncaster sales this month. I believe an exception was made in the case of the three, including the brother to King's Courier, that were taken over several weeks ago for Mrs. James E. Pepper by her brother, John Offutt, but that was because he was already on the ground and they felt that it would be a hardship on him to hold him over so much longer. After my experiences and observations I am inclined to the opinion that any one sending over thoroughbreds of any age or description to England or France will be disappointed."

MASKETTE'S BROTHER IS A GIANT.

Lexington, Ky., September 5.—Major Daingerfield vs the largest yearling reared at Castleton Stud is season is the full-brother to Maskette. James Keene's Futurity winner. He weighed 1,075 unds when he was shipped out to Sheepshead Bay oo weeks ago to be broken and handled under the e of trainer James Rowe.

DANNY MAHER FORGES TO THE FRONT.

For some time Maher and Higgs have been running a neck-and-neck race for leading position in the English winning jockey list, and at last the American horseman has drawn level with his rival. He was in great form August 27 at York, where he rode four winners to Higgs' one and their scores then stood at eighty each.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At Millstreem Stud there has been no change in the instructions to Manager McCracken to have Adam and fifteen mares ready for shimment from Lexington, Ky., to France September 19.

The Brooklyn Jockey Club will not follow the lead of the Coney Island Jockey Club in making Friday a void day. Its program provides for the customary six days of racing each week of its meeting.

William Dubois refused $30,000 for Charles Edward last year after the Golden Garter colt won the Derby at Brighton. The man who offered him that sum was Sam Hildreth, who wanted him for racing on the Pacific coast.

The number of Kentucky sales of the cheaper mares and yearlings—the weeds—are growing fewer. The buyers seem to have cleaned up pretty much everything that could be bought for $75 and under. Over 1,000 such have gone away from around Lexnegton since the coming of the slump.

Grant Hugh Broyne has ten yearlings at Foster Helm's Grassmere Farm in Kentucky. The majority of them are by Elkhorn. The probabilities are that they will be broken this fall. Mr. Browne has not fully made up his mind about them, but Mr. Helm says the indications are that their owner will race them.

Henry O. Bernard, who died in New York Thurs-

Henry O. Bernard, who died in New York Thursday, was seventy-five years old. Mr. Bernard, once a partner in the firm of D. McDaniel & Co., and later owner of Goano and other good horses, was one of the best-known bettors on the turf in his day. James Rowe, J. H. McCormick and 'Ben' Pryor trained for Mr. Bernard at different times.

Waldorf Astor, Jr., has seriously entered upon an English racing career by securing admission for his race horses into the Kingsclere Stable, which is the most fashionable racing establishment in England. It is owned jointly by the Dukes of Portland and Westminster, who burchased it a few years ago and transformed it from a public stable into a private one, excluding all other owners.

Nassau County. New York, in which Belmont Park is situated, sent Carl Burr to the senate at Albany to vote against Governor Hughes last winter when the confiscating Hart-Agnew measures came up. If is a pretty good sort of county and it holds its proportion of members of the Personal Liberty progress. There is a priest of the Catholic Church in Nessau who has clear ideas on the subject of personal liberty, and he has been one of the most zealous workers in the interests of the league.

At St. Louis, besides the old Fair Grounds race track, there is a section of nearly 200 acres revoted to park purposes. The track itself occupies 110 acres, and a large section is given over to stabling. When the annual fair was discontinued the site ceased to be exempt from taxation. The grounds recently figured in a large realty deal, whereby much of the stock held by the Cella-Adler-Tilles confederacy was transferred to other parties in exchange for the corresponding amount of stock in the Missouri-Lincoln Trust building.

Winner—Ch. m, by Tenny—Fio II. (trained by C. Franklin).

Went to post at 4:23. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

Miss Crawford made the running undisturbed to the stretch turn, where she was momentarily headed, but came on again under punishment and outstayed Monfort decisively in a hard closing drive. The latter, badly ridden, was securely pocketed and messed about in the early running, closed up rapidly in the third quarter and appeared the winner momentarily, but succumbed finally under a weak finish.

After forward pursuit of the winner for seven furlongs, failed to stay.

Scratched—(7688) Woodcraft, 99; 76812 Bedouin, 108; 76789 Grapple, 103; 76842°Milford, 97; 76813 Lord Stanhope, 103; 75521 Samuel H. Harris, 106; 76813 Albert Star, 97; 76755 Castlewood, 97; 76539 Polly Watts, 99.

TWENTY LEADING SIRES.

The progeny of Hastings did nothing notable in the way of money winning in the month of August, but picked up sufficient to keep him safely at the head of the list of leading stallions. As was the case at the end of July, Ogden is still second. In the course of the month Sain ousted Commando from third place. Commando only gained $930 in the month of August, but another representative of the house of Domino advanced rapidly into prominence. This is Disguise, which, from last place at the end of July with $25,769 to his credit, mounted to fifth place with $82,579 won by his progeny, an increase for the month of $56,750. The end of September will probably find him safely third to Hastings and Ogden. The twenty leaders and the aggregates to the credit of their progeny at the close of August were:

From time to time Daily Racing Form will publish a table of the comparative rating of those lockeys whose skill in the saddle has already been well dear-onstrated and of those who have not arrived, but give promise of coming excellence. The handlean will divide these riders into four classifications of which those admittedly in the front rank of their calling will be indicated by 100, thence downward through 95 and 90 to 80, the lowest classification from which advancement upward will come when justified by good riding. The table will also show the number of mounts, wins, seconds, thirds and unplaced from January 1, 1907, will be corrected from week to week, and is as follows:

Whiting ... Williams, Williams, Wilson, F. Wright, A. THE INTOLERANCE OF THE REFORMER.

Major Foxhall A. Daingerfield of Castleton Stud, where the Keene wonders are raised, writes to the Thoroughbred Record of Lexington, Ky., on the subject of the racing crusade in the east and its influence, as follows:

"An English bishop, in few words, expresses the Biblical and sane view on the subject of betting and sumphuary laws: 'Making a bet is not sin: ineither is taking a drink sin: drinking to excess is sin. If I should say, I will bet you five shillings it will rain tomorrow, it would take a long time to prove from the Bible that I had committed sin.'
"If this be true—and I think it is—regulation, not extirpation, is what is needed to keep these indulgences, indifferent in themselves as to tacir moral aspect, from becoming shriful by excess."
To this degree, and this alone, has the government a right in any case to interfere with the personal liberty of the individual citizen. By the enactment of laws prohibiting under a penalty of imprisonment in a penitentiary for the period of one year, acts which in themselves violate no moral law (are not Malum in se), a crime is manufactured out of what is not in conscience or under the Divine Law accounted shift laws probibiting the making of a bet or the purebase or taking of a drink a crime punishable with a severity shocking to the structive of respect for law, destroying, as it does, all proportion between the offense and its punishment, and by its disproportion rendering its enforcement repugnant to common sense and hence a dead letter, adding to the number of unenforced and unenforcible statutes which tend to add to the growing contempt for law and order. Think of punishment identical in character, if not in degree, being meted out for violation of sumptuary laws or to gentlemen making in open daylight a bet of their own money on the prowess of rival racers in a contest viewed by thousands of their admiring fellow citizens, and that meted out by the same jury to the thief, the burglar or the wrecker of female virtue. Yet this is what the governor of the Empire State has succeeded in bringing about in that state by his insistent demands upon the legislature of that state.

"Is not the crime of placing such an enactment on the statute books out of all proportion to the irregularities sought to be repressed? Many of the sumptuary laws, which are being urged upon legislatures all over these United States, are distinctly anti-Christ in character. They discredit the first miracle wrought by the Master when on earth. He converted the water into the better wine at the marriage in Cana of Galilee, and distort the relation fixed in Holy Writ between the expedient and the morally wrong, as shown in the incident of Noah's Jambouree where Ham was given a punishment for unfillal conduct in his failure to cover the nakedness of his father, which even now makes it hazardous for his descendants to appear on the streets of Springfield, while the 'lapse' of the old navigator is passed over as an offense claiming no comment by the side of Ham's.

"Yet, lossing all sense of proportion, Governor Hughes, some uninformed ministers and puritanical bigots, allied with old women of both sexes, are determined to destroy hundreds of millions of dolars, bankrupt thousands, and deprive hundreds of thousands of laborers of the means of subsistence, "Yet, lossing all sense of proportion, Governor Hughes, some uninformed ministers and puritanical bigots, allied with old

THE STANDARD TURF GUIDE ROOM 212. 59 DEARBORN ST. CHICAGO. ********

NO GUESSWORK ABOUT IT.

My new practical method "POSITIVELY" beats the racing game with small capital, and when I say positively. I mean it. I tried every system I could buy for over ten years, and they all proved failures. I was on the very brink of despair when I made this discovery that I offer to reveal to you. I can show you the certain way to get the money at any handbook, noolroom or track. My method contains a practical winning secret that will open your eyes and surprise you. It is not an experiment, but a proven fact. Send M. O. $5 for my method and win. Address WM. H. SUTTON, Chemist, 1021 West 25th Street. Los Angeles, Cal.

A New System.

Although I have used it successfully for the past twelve years, it has never before been offered to the public. Its followers cash from two to five bets every day on any track. Send name and address for full particulars to
